Section G: Assertion and Reason

Questions 36–40 test grammar concepts with reasoning.

Question 36

Choose the correct assertion-reason option.

Assertion: The preposition “on” is used to indicate a time or date.

Reason: Prepositions are used to show the relationship between a noun or pronoun and other words in a sentence.

- A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- C. The Reason is true, but the Assertion is false.
- D. Both Reason and Assertion are false.

Correct Answer: B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.

Explanation: The assertion and reason are both true, but the reason is a general definition and does not specifically explain why “on” is used for dates.

Question 37

Choose the correct assertion-reason option.

Assertion: The gerund always ends in “-ing” and can be used as the main subject of a sentence.

Reason: A gerund is a form of a verb that functions as a noun in a sentence.

- A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- C. The Reason is true, but the Assertion is false.
- D. Both Reason and Assertion are false.

Correct Answer: A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.

Explanation: A gerund is an -ing verb form used as a noun, so it can act as the subject of a sentence.

Question 38

Choose the correct assertion-reason option.

Assertion: “Piece of cake” is an idiom that refers to a delicious dessert loved by many.

Reason: Idioms and phrases are groups of words whose meanings are different from the literal meanings of the individual words.

- A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- C. The Reason is true, but the Assertion is false.
- D. Both Reason and Assertion are false.

Correct Answer: C. The Reason is true, but the Assertion is false.

Explanation: “Piece of cake” means something very easy, not literally a dessert in idiomatic use. The reason correctly defines idioms.

Question 39Choose the correct assertion-reason option.

Assertion: Contractions are formed by combining two words and replacing missing letters with an apostrophe.

Reason: Contractions are often used to emphasize the formality of written communication.

- A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- C. The Assertion is true, but the Reason is false.
- D. The Assertion is false, but the Reason is true.

Correct Answer: C. The Assertion is true, but the Reason is false.

Explanation: Contractions do use apostrophes, but they are generally less formal rather than more formal.

Editorial note: The source answer key marked B; this has been corrected to C.

Question 40Choose the correct assertion-reason option.

Assertion: Modal verbs are used to express ability, possibility, necessity, and other related concepts.

Reason: Modal verbs are always followed by a main verb in its base form.

- A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- B. Both Assertion and Reason are true, but the Reason is not the correct explanation of the Assertion.
- C. The Assertion is true, but the Reason is false.
- D. The Assertion is false, but the Reason is true.

Correct Answer: A. Both Assertion and Reason are true, and the Reason is the correct explanation of the Assertion.

Explanation: Modal verbs such as can, must, and might are followed by the base form of the main verb.
